

Living in Freedom: The Power of our Mouth!

Week 3

“The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit.”
Proverbs 18:21 (NIV)

Overview: We are going to look at the power of our mouth, what we say and the importance of the words we speak. This is another area that is key to grabbing hold of and maintaining the freedom we have because Jesus died.

What does it really mean to speak out God’s truths and promises? It means that when speaking God’s promises, they become a truth inside us that is so deeply rooted the enemy will not be able to steal them with thoughts of doubt. Sometimes we have to change our mouth before we are able to change our heart. Even if you are struggling to stand in faith in an area of your life, we need to continue to speak faith and victory until it becomes a reality to us.

Stand and claim what is yours!

Believe: _____

Think: _____

Say: _____

Feel: _____

Do: _____

The Power of Knowing and Speaking God's Promises

Defeat the Devil with Your Mouth!

“And take the helmet of salvation and the sword that the Spirit wields, which is the Word of God.”
Ephesians 6:17 (AMP)

Praying with Boldness

“In Him and through faith in Him we may approach God with freedom and confidence.”

Ephesians 3:12 (NIV)

“Then Jesus said to them, “Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him.’ And suppose the one inside answers, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can’t get up and give you anything.’ I tell you, even though he will not get up and give you the bread because of friendship, yet because of your shameless audacity he will surely get up and give you as much as you need. So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks,

the door will be opened.”

Luke 11:5-10 (NIV)

“Let us then fearlessly and confidently and boldly draw near to the throne of grace [the throne of God’s unmerited favor to us sinners], that we may receive mercy [for our failures] and find grace to help in good time for every need appropriate help and well-timed help, coming just when we need it].”

Hebrews 4:16 (AMP)

Homework/Quiet Time: Practice Listening to the Holy Spirit

Pray this prayer out loud before beginning this Holy Spirit prayer time.

Father, I come to You today offering everything of myself before You. I want You to mold me into everything You are. Help me to quiet myself in Your presence so that I may hear You clearly. Thank You that I am Your sheep and I hear my Shepherd's voice (John 10:27) and I know Your voice. Holy Spirit, please quiet any voice of the demonic that may try to interfere in the name of my Lord Jesus Christ. Thank You for Your pure and perfect love for me.

Quiet your mind and go to God with these things, writing everything that comes to mind.

1) God, please reveal to me where I have been speaking words of defeat (write all areas).

2) Please show me the impact my mouth has had upon my life or others around me.

3) Holy Spirit, please show me one new confession of life and victory so that I may begin to speak it over my life daily. (This will be a revelation from God; be sure to write down the confession He shows you and speak it out daily.)
